This petition seeks direction for re-evaluation of marks in paper Operations Research subject of B.Com. Final.

Case of the petitioner is that he appeared in B.Com. Final Examination of the Punjab University, Chandigarh in April, 2007. On 15.7.2007, result was declared, showing compartment in Operations Research (OPR). He sought re-evaluation which was declined on 20.7.2007.

We have heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

It is well settled that absence of provision for re-evaluation cannot be held to be invalid in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Maharashtra State Board of Secondary and Higher Secondary Education and another v. Paritosh Bhupesh Kumarsheth etc., AIR 1984 SC 1543. Re-evaluation cannot be allowed as a matter of course unless permissible under the Rules. No special feature has been shown in the present case for deviation from the general Rule.

Accordingly, we do not find any ground to entertain this petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

Dismissed.
